Personal, Social and Emotional Development
We will learn to be confident to talk to other children and to communicate freely about our own home and community.

Communication and Language
We will learn to build up vocabulary that reflects the breadth of our experiences.

Physical development
We will learn to travel with confidence and skill around, under, over and through balancing and climbing equipment.